

RESOURCES FOR YOUR PHD STUDENTS

PhD students can make a one on one appointment with a career coach HERE

PhD students can find jobs on Handshake.

Career Path Overviews

The PDCO website features overviews of multiple careers and interviews and web casts of alumni sharing insights into their career and how they transitioned into their job.

AAAS online Career Support Center

PDCO has purchased one year subscriptions to AAAS new career center that features over 23 courses from grant writing to using LinkedIn to build your community.

Versatile PhD

All JHU PhD students have access to Versatile PhD – an on-line resource that provide overviews of careers, examples of resumes for various careers and career relevant webinars.

Interview Stream

All JHU PhD students have access to interview stream. The site allows them to videotape and online interview that the student and PDCO career coaches can review. Multiple tips and resources targeted at enhancing interview skills are accessible on the website. Contact PDCO to set up an interview for you and provide site access.

On-Line Books

PDCO has partnered with the Welch Library to make career and professional development books available for on-line viewing and reading by our PhD students. You can find the books

Going Global

Going Global is an on-line subscription free to JHU PhD students that provides international job search advice and opportunities.

CQ Interactive

The most advanced online case study training developed for PhD students interested in consulting careers.

Vault

Online Service, free to JHU PhD students, that features company rankings, a job board, and career resources.